CAREERS IN THE AUTOMOTIVE INDUSTRY

Service Advisor

An automotive service advisor acts as a liaison between customers and the service technicians, providing customer service, advice on vehicle maintenance and repair, and coordinating service appointments to ensure a smooth and efficient experience. They also explain technical information to customers in an understandable manner and manage service orders and billing.

Parts Estimator

An automotive parts estimator specializes in assessing vehicle testing and inspection results from the technician & determining the necessary parts and repairs needed. They accurately estimate the cost and time for repairs and relay that information to the service advisor.

Automotive Technician

An automotive technician is a professional who specializes in inspecting, maintaining, and repairing vehicles, utilizing a variety of tools and diagnostic equipment to ensure their optimal performance and safety.

Shop Foreman

An automotive shop foreman oversees & manages technicians, ensuring quality control, and maintaining an efficient workflow. They also provide technical guidance, coordinate complex repairs, and ensure adherence to safety standards and customer satisfaction.

Service Manager

An automotive service manager leads the service advisors & oversees support staff, managing customer relations, and ensuring high-quality service delivery. They are responsible for setting service goals and implementing strategies to maximize efficiency and customer satisfaction.

APPRENTICESHIPUSA™

Want to work with our awesome team but don't know how to get started? We partner with a federally sponsored program called, ApprenticeshipUSA to offer employment to people just like you, even if they have little to no experience, through a paid apprenticeship!

Join forces with one of our skilled mentors who will lead you through every step of the process. Along your journey, you'll also gain insights into the operations at the front of the house. Your learning experience will be a blend of workbook-based education and practical, hands-on application.

To Apply contact one of our offices, go to the Join Our Team page at honestwrenches.com or go to www.apprenticeship.gov/apprenticeship-job-finder and search for Honest Wrenches.
